

Contents

FALL/HOLIDAY 2006

Merrimack
MAGAZINE
Valley

FEATURES

The Rebirth of Lawrence? 12

Joe Clements gives us an inside look at the continuing revitalization of Lawrence, and the movers and shakers who are behind it.

Millionaires and Pipe Dreams 20

Did you know that the original Boston Music Hall pipe organ now resides in Methuen? Find out more about the man responsible for bringing the famed pipe organ to the Merrimack Valley in Rebecca Spolarich's illuminating article on this architectural and musical masterpiece.

A Portrait of the Merrimack Valley 24

Just what and who, from history through the present day, make the valley such a special place to live? Lowell resident Andy Smith gives us an inside look at some unique features of the Merrimack Valley, from A to Z.

A Festive Home for the Holidays 32

Creative ideas for using flowers and greens to decorate your home during the holiday season.

Holiday Cooking: From a Chef's Table to Yours 37

Ever wonder what some of the valley's hottest chefs serve up at home? Newburyport resident Michelle Curran interviewed five of them, all of who graciously share their favorite holiday recipes.

Imaginative Gifts from Talented Local Artists 44

Instead of hitting the mall, why not find a unique, locally made gift to present to your loved ones? Plum Island's Gillian Swart profiles just a few of the valley's talented artists, from painter to sculptor to woodworker.

DEPARTMENTS

Happenings 8

Theresa DeFranzo offers a sampling of recent events and business news in the valley.

Community Spotlight 10

Gillian Swart sheds light on the Newburyport-based non-profit Opportunity Works.

Good Eats 36

Food critic Charlton Becker reviews Andover's Cassis Bistro Français.

Practical Matters 43

Industry expert Timothy Tozier shares his advice on flood insurance.

River Roundup 50

Planning a family outing to a local holiday concert, or just looking for a place to let the kids unleash some energy? Janelle Randazza tells you where and when some of the best activities are taking place this holiday season.

Spotlight on the Arts 52

The Sad Café in Plaistow, NH, may be better known by the teens who hang out there, but Merrimack Valley parents will be equally pleased to learn about this all-ages music venue. Writer Danielle Sadler shares her experience.

Buy Local 54

Merrimack Valley Magazine tells you where to buy the best locally grown holiday trees.

Remembrances 56

Haverhill residents Al and Marie Crouse have many fond memories of their town spanning the last fifty years. Read Perry Glasser's interview with the Crouses to learn more about Haverhill's hidden gems.

Portrait 58

Photographer Liam King shares his talent with Merrimack Valley Magazine.

Want to subscribe? www.mvmag.net One Year (Five Issues): $13.95